

CALL FOR EPC PROPOSALS

The Government of Guyana (GoG) invites EPC proposals to design, engineer, construct (and then operate), all required assets for a gas bottling and logistics company.

The proposed Guyana Gas Bottling and Logistics Company (GGBL), a company to be incorporated, under a Public-Private Partnership (PPP) model, will bottle, transport, and distribute cooking gas for domestic use.

The objective of GGBL is to lower the price of domestic cooking gas. Annual domestic demand for cooking gas is equivalent to 3 million 20-pounds cylinders with a retail value of G$14 billion per annum.

The project will be located at Wales, east of the GTE Combined Cycle Power Plant and NGL Facility and will receive the cooking gas from Guyana Power and Gas Inc (GPGI) a fully owned Government of Guyana company, at wholesale prices.

EPC Proposals must contain the following:

1. Prior experience in EPCs of similar projects.
2. Prior experience operating similar projects.
3. Proposed size/perimeter of required land. Provide a detailed plot plan showing all parts of the bottling plant, storage/warehouse facilities, supporting infrastructure/equipment to load and transport cooking gas.
4. Detailed project schedule showing (i) time for design/engineering (ii) time for construction, both in sufficient detail.
5. EPC price breakdown (with as much detail) of entire project, including (i) site development (ii) construction of buildings/facilities (iv) immovable equipment (v) transportation vehicles (vi) other infrastructure.
6. Provide a detailed work methodology including local and foreign costs, and specifications of all key equipment to be installed.
7. Describe key contractors and sub-contractors, manpower (local and foreign) during construction, and details of local content.
8. Provide an EPC contract, with sufficient details and schedules, reflective of best practice and/or executed by your firm as EPC contractor.
9. Provide an Operator contract (in increments of 5 years), Business Plan for operations for similar periods, including detailed financial projections and assumptions.
10. Describe and detail all assumptions on taxation during (i) EPC stage (ii) Operations stage.

GGBL will be a private company with financing secured from the private sector. GOG shall be responsible for (i) establishing GGBL, (ii) structuring and securing financing, (iii) arranging all contracts and permits. GGBL will be structured on a Project Finance basis.

Responses to this EPC will allow GOG to select an EPC contractor (and Operator) based on (i) qualifications and experience (ii) EPC costs (iii) operator costs (iii) timeframes. Only qualified and experienced firms will be evaluated.

The deadline for submissions will be Thursday, January 15, 2026 (Closing Deadline) and must be submitted to:

Chairman
National Procurement and Tender Administration Board (NPTAB)
